“ I not only lost my dad, but I lost my friend. He use to get me up at OH GOD early because the fish were biting and sit there for hours in the boat waiting for the fish to bite. I will always remember our road trips having deep talks about life. I think it's how I got his values and moral compass. I will sure miss those adventures. I will miss a lot of things especially his laugh. He use to drive me crazy but I loved him. I always will. I will just miss him. Thank you for being my dad. I love you!

“ Bro, I can't tell you how much I will miss you. We had our fights when we were young but as we matured and started our life challenges we were very close, we loved and supported each other. We had many fun trips together fishing, visiting the donkey town in Arizona and just hanging out as family. My heart is breaking knowing I won't hear your voice on the phone or get emails checking up on each other. I know you are safe and happy in God's arms. Love you, your sister B

“ Dad, my tears are non stop for you! This to me is a nightmare, this can not be real Dad. But it is! No man can compare to you, my father! You are the Best, and knowing your gone is torture to my heart. I Love You! Whats funny, is characteristics that reminded my mother of my dad within me, she would forget my name and call me Larry. Lol. So I'm Fawn ..aka Larry!

“ Larry is my cousin! He was such a nice person. Loved to hear his stories and tales of times gone by. He would never fail to call us and check on us! If it hadn't been for him I would not have gotten to go to my uncle's funeral in CO. He was a big help to our family also! We loved him dearly!! You will be missed Larry!

“ I met Larry when I was 15 years old. We got married when I turned 18. He wanted to move to Colorado after we were married because all he could think about was fishing with his uncle Junior! He was a true family man. We went camping every summer and he fished! He was a hard worker and tenacious fisherman! He would even sit for hours staring at his fish in the fish tanks which at one time he had several. Will miss his laughter and zest for life. He always made me laugh and could do the best gorilla impersonation! Bless you my friend!
